Introducing the role of the Trustee

We're looking for one member of the Scheme to join the board of Trustees from 27 July 2026.

Would you like to:

- Try something a bit different from your normal job?
- Build your knowledge and widen your experience?
- Make a difference to your fellow members and their families?

If your answer is
YES, you could be one of the people we need.

What we do

We look after your pension benefits, and those of your fellow members. Our work covers many areas: from financial and legal matters, as you might expect – to governance, wellbeing, communication, investment, social and cultural change.

Our main duty is to balance the best interests of everyone in the Scheme, while keeping it in line with its rules, and wider pension law. We have advisers to help us with this.

We look after your pension
benefits, and those of your fellow members

We welcome candidates of all ages and from all backgrounds.

What we're looking for

We understand the need for diversity on the board and value fresh perspectives. We are interested in your commitment and enthusiasm regardless of your current level of experience. Once you join the board, you'll receive all the training you might need to fulfil the role. Training will also be available throughout your term to enable you to keep up to date with developments in the pension world.

You will be expected to attend regular Trustee meetings but you will be able to take part whether you are at home or in the office. We have the technology in place to allow you to stay connected.

Trustees will tell you that the role is both valuable and rewarding. It's a chance to sharpen your critical thinking and problem solving, while working with a new team – including our specialist advisers.
